Sedburgh, for those who don't know, is a beautiful 'old wordly' place with cobbled streets, small independent shops, cafes and pubs and it is surrounded by 360 degree fell views.

Accommodation has been booked for 32 people in the Howgills Barn, a renovated barn which offers 8 en-suite bedrooms (mainly bunk style) with a large open plan lounge with fell views, flagged floors, beams, and underfloor heating.

There is a dining area, 2 kitchens, TV lounge with Sky TV, drying room, ample parking (for up to 25 cars) and free wifi. The Barn also has a Sonos Bluetooth music system with surround sound, which is ideal for evening celebrations!

I'm finalising menu and for the evening meal on Saturday 8 December. Payment for the meal will be in addition to the above cost, on the night in cash please.

Volunteer Walk leaders please

Finally, I'm seeking some volunteers to offer a couple of walks on Saturday and Sunday. I'll be out of the country in Nepal from 14 October to 4 November, so if you have any questions, happy to help before 12 October ideally.

More details and menu choices to follow in the next few days.

Thanks
